ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 10/08/23
Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code §96.5(2)a-Discharge/Misconduct
Iowa Code §96.5(1)- Voluntary Quit

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On November 9, 2023, the claimant/appellant filed an appeal from the October 31, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits based on claimant voluntarily quitting on July 31, 2023 for personal reasons. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on November 29, 2023. Claimant participated. Employer participated through Store Manager, Sharina Ford.

ISSUE:

- I. Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct, or voluntary quit without good cause?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began working for employer in May 2023. Claimant last worked as a part-time cashier. Claimant also worked full-time for her regular employer, Wells Fargo Bank NA.

On or about July 24, 2023, claimant informed Ms. Ford that she would be quitting because she was moving to Waukee. Claimant wanted to focus more on her full-time job and no longer wanted to work in the part-time supplemental job. Claimant separated from employment on July 31, 2023, when she quit. Continuing work was available for the claimant if she had not quit the employment.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer, and has not requalified but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.25 provides:

Voluntary quit without good cause. In general, a voluntary quit means discontinuing the employment because the employee no longer desires to remain in the relationship of an employee with the employer from whom the employee has separated. The employer has the burden of proving that the claimant is disqualified for benefits pursuant to Iowa Code section 96.5. However, the claimant has the initial burden to produce evidence that the claimant is not disqualified for benefits in cases involving Iowa Code section 96.5, subsection (1), paragraphs "a" through "i," and subsection 10. The following reasons for a voluntary quit shall be presumed to be without good cause attributable to the employer:

(2) The claimant moved to a different locality.

Iowa Code section 96.5(12) provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits, regardless of the source of the individual's wage credits:

12. Supplemental part-time employment. If the department finds that an individual is disqualified for benefits under subsection 1 or 2 based on the nature of the individual's separation from supplemental part-time employment, all wages paid by the supplemental part-time employer to that individual in any quarter which are chargeable following a disqualifying separation under subsection 1 or 2 shall not be considered wages credited to the individual until such time as the individual meets the conditions of requalification as provided for in this chapter, or until the period of disqualification provided for in this chapter has elapsed.

Workers who are disqualified from part-time employment based upon the reason for the separation may be eligible to receive reduced unemployment insurance benefits, provided they have sufficient wage credits from other base-period employers to remain monetarily eligible, and provided they are otherwise eligible. Irving v. Emp't Appeal Bd., 883 N.W.2d 179 (Iowa 2016); codified on July 2, 2017, at Iowa Code § 96.5(12). In this event, the part-time employer's account will not be assessed for benefits paid to claimant and the employer's wage credits will not be considered in determining benefits for claimant until he or she has requalified by having worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times their weekly benefit amount.

Iowa Code section 96.5(1)g provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

g. The individual left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer under circumstances which did or would disqualify the individual for benefits, except as provided in paragraph "a" of this subsection but, subsequent to the leaving, the individual worked in and was paid wages for insured work equal to ten times the individual's weekly benefit amount, provided the individual is otherwise eligible.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.27 provides:

Voluntary quit of part-time employment and requalification. An individual who voluntarily quits without good cause part-time employment and has not requalified for benefits following the voluntary quit of part-time employment, yet is otherwise monetarily eligible for benefits based on wages paid by the regular or other base period employers, shall not be disqualified for voluntarily quitting the part-time employment. The individual and the part-time employer which was voluntarily quit shall be notified on the Form 65-5323 or 60-0186, Unemployment Insurance Decision, that benefit payments shall not be made which are based on the wages paid by the part-time employer and benefit charges shall not be assessed against the part-time employer's account; however, once the individual has met the requalification requirements following the voluntary quit without good cause of the part-time employer, the wages paid in the part-time employment shall be available for benefit payment purposes. For benefit charging purposes and as determined by the applicable requalification requirements, the wages paid by the part-time employer shall be transferred to the balancing account.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code section 96.5(1)"g."

See also, McCarthy v. Iowa Emp't Sec. Comm'n, 76 N.W.2d. 201 (Iowa 1956) wherein the court held that persons who become unemployed by a layoff from their full-time employer cannot be disqualified for a previous voluntary quit from a part-time employer.

Claimant voluntarily quit her part-time supplement employment due to moving to another locality. The reason for the separation is disqualifying. The claimant has not requalified for benefits since the separation but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible according to base period wages with Wells Fargo Bank NA. Thus, she may be eligible for benefits based upon those other wages.

DECISION:

The October 31, 2023, (reference 01), unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant voluntarily left the employment without good cause attributable to the employer and has not requalified for benefits but appears to be otherwise monetarily eligible. Benefits are allowed, provided she is otherwise eligible. The account of this part-time employer (262054-000) shall not be charged.
