APPEAL NO. 23A-UI-02516-B2T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

DES MOINES IND COMMUNITY SCH DIST

Employer

OC: 01/29/23

Claimant: Respondent (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 – Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed the representative's decision dated March 1, 2023, (reference 02) that concluded it failed to file a timely protest regarding the claimant's separation of employment on January 9, 2023, and no disqualification of unemployment insurance benefits was imposed. A hearing was scheduled and held on March 27, 2023, pursuant to due notice. Employer participated by Rhonda Wagoner and Nicole Wichman. Claimant did not participate.

ISSUES:

Whether the employer's protest is timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The administrative law judge, having considered all of the evidence in the record, finds that: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on February 10, 2023, and received by the employer within ten days. The notice of claim contains a warning that any protest must be postmarked or returned not later than ten days from the initial mailing date. The employer did not effect a protest until February 28, 2023, which is after the ten-day period had expired.

Employer stated that there was a computer hacking / virus that infected employer's computers. This occurred on or around January 9, 2023. Employer could not say how long until service was restored to computers and did not say that it was or wasn't restored by February 10, 2022 – the date the Notice of Claim was sent to employer through the SIDES / SOPHIA system. Employer stated that through the time when most computers were down, employers' workers, including the testifying witness, could go to a separate location to use operating computer systems. As employer's witness was extremely busy trying to deal with benefits matters, she did not access the SIDES site of IWD for a period of time. Employer's witness chose to access the SIDES information in late February, and soon thereafter filed a response with IWD on February 28, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

A portion of the Iowa Code section dealing with timeliness of an appeal from a representative's decision states that such an appeal must be filed within ten days after notification of that decision was mailed or emailed. In addressing an issue of timeliness of an appeal under that portion of this Code section, the Iowa Supreme Court held that this statute prescribing the time for notice of appeal clearly limits the time to do so, and that compliance with the appeal notice provision is mandatory and jurisdictional. Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979).

The administrative law judge considers the reasoning and holding of that court in that decision to be controlling on this portion of that same Iowa Code section which deals with a time limit in which to file a protest after notification of the filing of the claim has been mailed. The employer has not shown any good cause for not complying with the jurisdictional time limit. Therefore, the administrative law judge is without jurisdiction to entertain any protest regarding the separation from employment. Employer was still able to access information through computers at a different site during the periods in question, but did not access the SIDES site in a timely fashion.

The administrative law judge concludes the employer failed to effect a timely protest within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law, and the delay was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2). The administrative law judge further concludes that the employer has failed to effect a timely protest pursuant to Iowa Code § 96.6-2, and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to the nature of the claimant's termination of employment. See Beardslee v. IDJS, 276 N.W.2d 373 (Iowa 1979); Franklin v. IDJS, 277 N.W.2d 877 (Iowa 1979) and Pepsi-Cola Bottling Company v. Employment Appeal Board, 465 N.W.2d 674 (Iowa App. 1990).

DECISION:

The decision of the representative dated March 1, 2023, (reference 02) is affirmed. The employer has failed to file a timely protest, and the decision of the representative shall stand and remain in full force and effect.
