APPEAL 23A-UI-01322-AR-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE DECISION

OC: 01/01/23
Claimant: Respondent (2R)

Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able to and Available for Work
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.23(26) – Same Hours and Wages
Iowa Code § 96.1A(37) – Total and Partial Unemployment
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(2) – Same Base Period Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On February 9, 2023, the employer filed an appeal from the January 31, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision that allowed benefits based upon the determination that claimant was able to and available for work. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on February 24, 2023. The claimant, Penny S. Gallagher, did not participate. The employer, CW Davenport, LLC, participated through Tanya Deljanovan. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Is the claimant totally, partially or temporarily unemployed?
Is the claimant able to and available for work?
Is the claimant still employed at the same hours and wages?
Is the employer's account subject to charge?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant began employment as the housekeeping supervisor on March 20, 2021. She remains employed in that role as of the date of her unemployment appeal hearing. Claimant works full time and earns $15.50 per hour.

Claimant filed a claim for unemployment benefits with an effective date of January 1, 2023. She filed weekly continuing claims for the benefit weeks ending January 7 and January 14, 2023. She reported wages earned both weeks, and, as a result, only received a partial benefit payment for the week ending January 14, 2023, and no benefit payment due to excess wages for the week ending January 7, 2023.

For both of the weeks in which she filed claims for unemployment benefits, claimant remained employed in a full-time capacity. Full-time hours were available to her, but she chose not to take advantage of them. There were no dates on which no work was available to claimant.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes claimant was not totally or partially unemployed. Benefits are denied.

Iowa Code section 96.1A(37) provides:

"Total and partial unemployment".

a. An individual shall be deemed "totally unemployed" in any week with respect to which no wages are payable to the individual and during which the individual performs no services.

b. An individual shall be deemed partially unemployed in any week in which either of the following apply:

(1) While employed at the individual's then regular job, the individual works less than the regular full-time week and in which the individual earns less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

(2) The individual, having been separated from the individual's regular job, earns at odd jobs less than the individual's weekly benefit amount plus fifteen dollars.

c. An individual shall be deemed temporarily unemployed if for a period, verified by the department, not to exceed four consecutive weeks, the individual is unemployed due to a plant shutdown, vacation, inventory, lack of work or emergency from the individual's regular job or trade in which the individual worked full-time and will again work full-time, if the individual's employment, although temporarily suspended, has not been terminated.

Iowa Code section 96.4(3) provides:

An unemployed individual shall be eligible to receive benefits with respect to any week only if the department finds that:

3. The individual is able to work, is available for work, and is earnestly and actively seeking work. This subsection is waived if the individual is deemed partially unemployed, while employed at the individual's regular job, as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "b", unnumbered paragraph (1), or temporarily unemployed as defined in section 96.1A, subsection 37, paragraph "c". The work search requirements of this subsection and the disqualification requirement for failure to apply for, or to accept suitable work of section 96.5, subsection 3 are waived if the individual is not disqualified for benefits under section 96.5, subsection 1, paragraph "h".

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(2) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (2) The amount of regular benefits plus fifty percent of the amount of extended benefits paid to an eligible individual shall be charged against the account of the employers in the base period in the inverse chronological order in which the employment of the individual occurred.

(a) However, if the individual to whom the benefits are paid is in the employ of a base period employer at the time the individual is receiving the benefits, and the individual is receiving the same employment from the employer that the individual received during the individual's base period, benefits paid to the individual shall not be charged against the account of the employer. This provision applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding subparagraph (3) and section 96.8, subsection 5.

(b) An employer's account shall not be charged with benefits paid to an individual who left the work of the employer voluntarily without good cause attributable to the employer or to an individual who was discharged for misconduct in connection with the individual's employment, or to an individual who failed without good cause, either to apply for available, suitable work or to accept suitable work with that employer, but shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

(c) The amount of benefits paid to an individual, which is solely due to wage credits considered to be in an individual's base period due to the exclusion and substitution of calendar quarters from the individual's base period under section 96.23, shall be charged against the account of the employer responsible for paying the workers' compensation benefits for temporary total disability or during a healing period under section 85.33, section 85.34, subsection 1, or section 85A.17, or responsible for paying indemnity insurance benefits.

Claimant has been, and remains employed in a full-time capacity. This was also true during the two weeks in which she filed claims for unemployment benefits. Full-time hours were available and offered to claimant effective January 1, 2023, but claimant did not take advantage of the hours offered to her. Accordingly, she is not totally or partially unemployed, nor is she able to and available for work, and benefits are denied.

DECISION:

The January 31, 2023, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is REVERSED. Claimant is employed at the same hours and wages as agreed upon at the time of hire and, therefore, is not partially unemployed. Benefits are denied effective January 1, 2023.

REMAND:

The issue of whether claimant has been overpaid unemployment insurance benefits is remanded to the Benefits Bureau of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
