Iowa Code §96.5(1)a – Voluntary Leaving – Other Employment

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Claimant filed a timely appeal from the June 27, 2005, reference 01, decision that denied benefits. After due notice was issued, a hearing was held on July 25, 2005. Claimant did participate. Employer did participate through Jennie Mullanack.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant was employed as a full-time cashier/pizza maker through June 4, 2005, when she quit to accept other employment at Oscar Meyer. She went there for orientation for three days and had an allergic reaction to the soap and could not work there any longer.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left her employment to accept employment elsewhere.

Iowa Code section 96.5-1-a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding section 96.8, subsection 5.

871 IAC 24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalifications and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment.

Even though the separation was without good cause attributable to the employer and would, standing alone, disqualify the claimant from receiving benefits, the claimant did leave in order to accept other employment and did perform services for the subsequent employer during orientation but was separated due to an allergy to soap before having completed orientation or beginning her regular employment. Accordingly, benefits are allowed and the account of the employer shall not be charged.

DECISION:

The June 27, 2005, reference 01, decision is modified in favor of the appellant. The claimant voluntarily left her employment in order to accept other employment. Benefits are allowed, provided the claimant is otherwise eligible. The account of the employer (Account Number 262054) shall not be charged.
