Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Protest
Iowa Code § 96.7(2)a(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On September 8, 2022, Gateway Hotel & Conference LLC (employer) filed an appeal from the statement of charges dated August 9, 2022, reference 02, for the second quarter of 2022. A hearing was held on October 20, 2022, pursuant to due notice. Linda Whalen (claimant) participated. The employer participated through General Manager, Samuel Meisinger. The department's Exhibits D1 through D3 were admitted into the record. Administrative notice was taken of claimant's unemployment insurance benefits records.

ISSUES:

- I. Was the employer's protest timely?
- II. Was the employer's appeal from the statement of charges timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant separated from employment on February 11, 2022 and filed a claim for benefits effective May 15, 2022. The notice of claim was filed in the SIDES system and a notification was sent to the email address of record on May 21, 2022. (Exhibit D-1). The employer received the notice but did not file a response because they were changing human resources employees. The employer received the statement of charges mailed August 9, 2022 for the second quarter of 2022. (Exhibit D-2). The employer filed its appeal of that statement of charges on September 8, 2022. (Exhibit D-3).

The issue of whether the claimant's separation qualifies her for benefits has not yet been investigated or adjudicated by the Benefits Bureau.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did not timely protest the notice of claim.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

In this case, the administrative law judge concludes the employer did receive the notice of claim, but did not timely protest the claim. The issue then, is whether the employer's protest should be accepted as timely.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.8(2) provides:

Notifying employing units of claims filed, requests for wage and separation information, and decisions made.

(2) Responding by employing units to a notice of the filing of an initial claim or a request for wage and separation information and protesting the payment of benefits.

a. The employing unit which receives a Form 65-5317, Notice of Claim, or Form 68-0221, Request for Wage and Separation Information, must, within ten days of the date of the notice or request, submit to the department wage or separation information that affects the individual's rights to benefits, including any facts which disclose that the individual separated from employment voluntarily and without good cause attributable to the employer or was discharged for misconduct in connection with employment.

b. The employing unit may protest the payment of benefits if the protest is postmarked within ten days of the date of the notice of the filing of an initial claim. In the event that the tenth day falls on a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the protest period is extended to the next working day of the department. If the employing unit has filed a timely report of facts that might adversely affect the individual's benefit rights, the report shall be considered as a protest to the payment of benefits.

c. If the employing unit protests that the individual was not an employee and it is subsequently determined that the individual's name was changed, the employing unit shall be deemed to have not been properly notified and the employing unit shall again be provided the opportunity to respond to the notice of the filing of the initial claim.

d. The employing unit has the option of notifying the department under conditions which, in the opinion of the employing unit, may disqualify an individual from receiving benefits. The notification may be submitted electronically.

(1) The Notice of Separation, Form 60-0154, must be postmarked or received before or within ten days of the date that the Notice of Claim, Form 65-5317, was mailed to the employer. In the event that the tenth day falls on Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the protest period is extended to the next working day of the department. If a claim for unemployment insurance benefits has not been filed, the Notice of Separation may be accepted at any time.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.35(2) provides:

Date of submission and extension of time for payments and notices.

24.35(2) The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

a. For submission that is not within the statutory or regulatory period to be considered timely, the interested party must submit a written explanation setting forth the circumstances of the delay.

b. The division shall designate personnel who are to decide whether an extension of time shall be granted.

c. No submission shall be considered timely if the delay in filing was unreasonable, as determined by the division after considering the circumstances in the case.

d. If submission is not considered timely, although the interested party contends that the delay was due to division error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States postal service, the division shall issue an appealable decision to the interested party.

In this case, the failure to file a protest was due to the employer switching human resources employees. The delay was not due to any Agency error or misinformation or delay or other action of the United States Postal Service pursuant to Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-4.35(2). The administrative law judge finds employer received prior notice of the claim and had a reasonable opportunity to respond to it, but did not do so. Therefore, employer cannot appeal the statement of charges now because appeals of charges are only allowed in situations where employer did not have prior notice of the claim. (see highlighted section of the law above).

In summary, employer received prior notice of claim and had a reasonable opportunity to respond to it, but failed to do so in a timely manner. Therefore, the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to make a determination with respect to claimant's eligibility for benefits or authority to remand the case for a fact-finding interview. Iowa Code § 96.6(2). The charges will remain in effect and claimant is allowed benefits.

DECISION:

The August 9, 2022, statement of charges for the second quarter of 2022 (reference 02) is affirmed. The employer failed to file a timely protest of the claim. Benefits are allowed and the charges stand.
