Iowa Code § 96.7(2)(a)(6) – Appeal from the Statement of Charges

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

Employer filed an appeal from the Statement of Charges dated May 9, 2023 for the first quarter of 2023. The parties were properly notified of the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on June 6, 2023. Claimant did not participate. Employer participated through Director of Human Resources and Marketing. No exhibits were admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUES:

Whether employer's protest is timely.
Whether employer's appeal from the statement of charges is timely.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds:

Claimant filed an initial claim for unemployment insurance benefits effective February 12, 2022. On February 16, 2023, Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) notified employer of the claim through the State Information Data Exchange System (SIDES). On February 24, 2023, employer submitted its protest of the claim via SIDES. IWD held a fact-finding interview. On March 27, 2023, IWD issued a decision (reference 03) denying claimant benefits finding that he was discharged for disqualifying misconduct. The decision remains in effect.

On April 20, 2023, IWD issued a decision (reference 06) finding claimant was overpaid benefits of $2,755.00 because of the March 27, 2023 (reference 03) disqualifying decision.

On May 9, 2023, IWD sent employer a Statement of Charges for the first quarter of 2023 reflecting charges for benefits paid to claimant. Employer appealed the Statement of Charges on May 12, 2023.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes:

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

Iowa Code section 96.7(2)a(6) provides:

2. Contribution rates based on benefit experience.

a. (6) Within forty days after the close of each calendar quarter, the department shall notify each employer of the amount of benefits charged to the employer's account during that quarter. The notification shall show the name of each individual to whom benefits were paid, the individual's social security number, and the amount of benefits paid to the individual. An employer which has not been notified as provided in section 96.6, subsection 2, of the allowance of benefits to an individual, may within thirty days after the date of mailing of the notification appeal to the department for a hearing to determine the eligibility of the individual to receive benefits. The appeal shall be referred to an administrative law judge for hearing and the employer and the individual shall receive notice of the time and place of the hearing.

An employer can only appeal a Statement of Charges if it has not received notice of the claim. In this case, employer received notice of the claim so it cannot appeal the Statement of Charges. While employer's appeal of the Statement of Charges is not appropriate, the charges to its account should be corrected through remand to IWD Tax Bureau.

DECISION:

The May 9, 2023 Statement of Charges for the first quarter of 2023 is AFFIRMED.

REMAND:

This matter is remanded to IWD Tax Bureau to issue employer an appropriate credit on its future Statement of Charges consistent with the decision issued on March 27, 2023 (reference 03).
