APPEAL 23A-UI-07683-AR-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 01/22/23
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.6(2) – Timeliness of Appeal
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Able and Available/Work Search
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.22(3) – Earnest and Active Search for Work

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

On August 7, 2023, the claimant filed an appeal from the July 11, 2023, (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision that denied benefits for the week ending February 25, 2023, due to inadequate reemployment activities. After due notice was issued, a telephone hearing was held on August 23, 2023. Appeal numbers 23A-UI-07681-AR-T, 23A-UI-07682-AR-T, 23A-UI-07683-AR-T, 23A-UI-07684-AR-T, 23A-UI-07685-AR-T, 23A-UI-07686-AR-T, 23A-UI-07687-AR-T, 23A-UI-07688-AR-T, 23A-UI-07689-AR-T, and 23A-UI-07690-AR-T were heard together and created one record. Claimant, Earl B. Pope, participated. The agency, Iowa Workforce Development, did not participate. Department’s Exhibit D-1 was admitted. The administrative law judge took official notice of the administrative record.

ISSUE:

Is the claimant’s appeal timely?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: An unemployment insurance decision was mailed to claimant's last known address of record on July 11, 2023. He did receive the decision, though he did not know precisely when. The decision contained a warning that an appeal must be postmarked or received by the Appeals Bureau by July 21, 2023. The appeal was not filed until August 7, 2023, which is after the date noticed on the disqualification decision. Claimant could not provide information regarding when he received the decision in the mail. However, he received the decision and, in response, called Iowa Workforce Development in mid or late July—around the appeal deadline—to obtain instructions regarding how to appeal the decision. He was told he needed to go online to file an appeal of the decision, and he was directed to the online appeal form. These instructions are also contained in the decision he received.

Even if he did not receive this decision in a timely manner, he later received an associated overpayment decision. He did not appeal that decision timely, either, because he did not see or know about the appeal deadline for that decision, which was printed on that decision.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's appeal is untimely.

Iowa Code section 96.6(2) provides, in pertinent part: “[u]nless the claimant or other interested party, after notification or within ten calendar days after notification was mailed to the claimant's last known address, files an appeal from the decision, the decision is final and benefits shall be paid or denied in accordance with the decision.”

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(1) provides:

1. Except as otherwise provided by statute or by division rule, any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document submitted to the division shall be considered received by and filed with the division:

(a) If transmitted via the United States Postal Service on the date it is mailed as shown by the postmark, or in the absence of a postmark the postage meter mark of the envelope in which it is received; or if not postmarked or postage meter marked or if the mark is illegible, on the date entered on the document as the date of completion.

(b) If transmitted via the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES), maintained by the United States Department of Labor, on the date it was submitted to SIDES.

(c) If transmitted by any means other than [United States Postal Service or the State Identification Data Exchange System (SIDES)], on the date it is received by the division.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871—24.35(2) provides:

2. The submission of any payment, appeal, application, request, notice, objection, petition, report or other information or document not within the specified statutory or regulatory period shall be considered timely if it is established to the satisfaction of the division that the delay in submission was due to division error or misinformation or to delay or other action of the United States postal service.

The Iowa Supreme Court has declared that there is a mandatory duty to file appeals from representatives' decisions within the time allotted by statute, and that the administrative law judge has no authority to change the decision of a representative if a timely appeal is not filed. Franklin v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 277 N.W.2d 877, 881 (Iowa 1979). Compliance with appeal notice provisions is jurisdictional unless the facts of a case show that the notice was invalid. Beardslee v. Iowa Dep't of Job Serv., 276 N.W.2d 373, 377 (Iowa 1979); see also In re Appeal of Elliott 319 N.W.2d 244, 247 (Iowa 1982).

Here, the claimant received the decision in the mail and, therefore, had an opportunity to file an appeal prior to the time at which he did. Claimant's delay was not due to an error or misinformation from the Department or due to delay or other action of the United States Postal Service. No other good cause reason has been established for the delay. Claimant's appeal was not filed on time and the administrative law judge lacks jurisdiction to decide the other issue in this matter.

In the event this decision regarding timeliness of appeal is reversed upon further appeal, there is sufficient evidence in the record for a decision on the merits regarding the substantive issues without need for further hearing.

DECISION:

The July 11, 2023, (reference 06) unemployment insurance decision is AFFIRMED. The appeal in this case was not timely, and the decision of the representative remains in effect.
