Employer

OC: 11/15/15
Claimant: Respondent (2/R)

Section 96.6-2 - Timeliness of Protest

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The employer appealed from the September 8, 2016, reference 08, decision that concluded it failed to file a timely protest regarding the claimant's separation of employment on September 30, 2016, and no disqualification of unemployment insurance benefits was imposed. A hearing was scheduled and held on September 29, 2016, pursuant to due notice. The claimant did not participate in the hearing. Steve Reynolds, Area Manager, participated in the hearing on behalf of the employer. Department's Exhibit D-1 was admitted to the record.

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant's notice of claim was mailed to the employer's address of record on September 30, 2015. The employer did not receive the notice of claim and employer filed its protest on September 7, 2016, after receiving its quarterly statement of charges. There are issues regarding the claimant's separation from this employer that have not yet been investigated or adjudicated at the claims level.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

Iowa Code § 96.6-2 provides in pertinent part:

2. Initial determination. A representative designated by the director shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of its filing, and the parties have ten days from the date of mailing the notice of the filing of the claim by ordinary mail to the last known address to protest payment of benefits to the claimant.

The administrative law judge concludes that the employer filed its protest within the time period prescribed by the Iowa Employment Security Law because the employer did not receive the Notice of Claim and appealed when it received the quarterly statement of charges. The issue of the claimant's separation from this employer is remanded to the Claims Section of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.

DECISION:

The September 8, 2016, reference 08, decision is reversed. The employer has filed a timely protest. The issue of the claimant's separation from this employer is remanded to the Claims Section of Iowa Workforce Development for an initial investigation and determination.
