OC: 11/26/17
Claimant: Appellant (2)

Iowa Code § 96.6(1) – Filing Claims
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g – Retroactive Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the December 12, 2017, (reference 01), unemployment insurance decision that denied claimant's request to backdate the claim. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled to be held on January 23, 2018. Claimant participated and waived notice on the issue of whether he was eligible for retroactive benefits. Claimant's Exhibit A was received.

ISSUE:

Should the claimant's request for retroactive benefits be granted for the two-week period ending December 9, 2017?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed an original claim effective November 26, 2017. Claimant filed a weekly claim for the one week ending December 2, 2017, but it was not received due to a technical error. Claimant did not realize this and attempted to file his continued claim for the one week ending December 9, 2017, but was unable to do so as his claim closed after one missed weekly claim filing. Claimant immediately contacted the agency and was assisted in reopening his claim and requesting retroactive benefits.

Claimant did not earn any wages or receive any vacation or holiday pay during the two weeks ending December 9, 2017.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's request for retroactive benefits is granted.

Iowa Code section 96.6(1) provides:

96.6 Filing — determination — appeal.

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe.

In order to be eligible for weekly benefits, the claimant must file an online web application continued claim or show good cause for the failure to do so to support a request for retroactive benefits. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g.

The December 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 13 and 14:

Claim Effective Date

The effective date of all UI claims, regardless of filing method, will be the Sunday of the week in which the application was filed. The effective date of a claim will not be changed for applications that were not filed in a timely manner.

Reactivating a Claim

An individual can start and stop claiming weekly benefits as many times as necessary during the benefit year. This is called a break in reporting status. Any break in reporting requires the individual to file another initial claim application during the week they want to start collecting benefits again. Any employment during the break must be reported.

The December 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 19 and 20:

Filing Weekly Claims

How to File

After you file your initial claim, file weekly claims online at iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov for every week you are unemployed or your hours are reduced. You must file a weekly claim for any week that you want payment even if your eligibility is being decided or you have an appeal pending.

To request UI benefit payments during weeks of unemployment, individuals must certify they:

- Are currently unemployed or working reduced hours
- Are able to work and available for work
- Have not refused any job offers or referrals to a job
- Are actively looking for work (unless waived)
- Are reporting any pay or pension payment

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Start of UI claim week one						Last day of week one (no filing)
First day to file week one	File for week one	File for week one	File for week one	File for week one	Last day to file for week one	Last day of week two (no filing)
First day to file week two	File for week two	File for week two	File for week two	File for week two	Last day to file for week two	Last day of week three (no filing)
First day to file week three	File for week three	File for week three	File for week three	File for week three	Last day to file for week three	Last day of week four (no filing)

When to File

The current week is the week that just ended on Saturday. Weekly claims must be filed 8 am Sunday through 5:30 pm Friday for the prior week only. This means individuals have six days to file the previous week’s claim. See the chart above for the days available to file. Weekly claims can be filed online using a mobile device or computer at <https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>.

Delay in filing your weekly claim could result in denial of benefits.

IMPORTANT: You will receive confirmation that the claim has been processed successfully. If you don’t receive confirmation, the process must be repeated until the claim has been successfully submitted.

Elsewhere in the December 2017, version of the handbook at page 8, contact information includes days and hours for filing a claim and weekly claim reporting:

File a Claim

Hours: Sunday through Friday, 8:00 am to 4:30 pm
www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov
<https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/UIInitialClaim/>

Weekly Claim Reporting

Hours: Sunday 8:00 am – 11:30 pm and Monday through Friday 8:00 am through 5:30 pm
<https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>

In this case, claimant was aware he needed to file a weekly claim each week he was seeking benefits. Claimant failed to file a weekly continued claim during the one week ending December 2, 2017, because of a technical error that was unknown to him. This is a good cause reason for failing to file a weekly claim. Claimant attempted to timely file his weekly claim the next week. Claimant was unable to because the claim closed after one week of failing to file a continued weekly claim.

Although the Unemployment Insurance Handbook addresses reactivating a claim, it does not clearly state that a claim will close after only one week of failing to file a continued weekly claim. Even if it did, it would have been technically impossible for claimant to reopen the claim in order to file a continued weekly claim for the week ending December 9, 2017. The claim did not close until the deadline to make a weekly claim filing--December 8, 2017, at 5:30 p.m. However, claimant only had until December 8, 2017, at 4:30 p.m. to reopen the claim. In other words, there was no closed claim for claimant to reopen. There is nothing claimant could have done to prevent the second missed weekly claim filing, especially since he did not know his first weekly claim filing was unsuccessful.

Claimant has shown a good cause reason for failing to file his weekly continued claim for the two weeks ending December 9, 2017. Therefore, the request for retroactive benefits is granted.

DECISION:

The December 12, 2017, (reference 01) unemployment insurance decision is reversed. The claimant's request for retroactive benefits is granted for the two weeks ending December 9, 2017. Claimant did not earn any wages or receive any vacation or holiday pay during the two weeks ending December 9, 2017.
