APPEAL 24A-UI-02097-ED-T
ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 01/28/24
Claimant: Appellant (1)

Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quit
Iowa Code § 96.5(2)A – Discharge for Misconduct

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant, Jennifer Wallace, filed an appeal from the February 15, 2024 (reference 01), unemployment insurance, decision that denied benefits based upon her voluntary quit. The parties were properly notified about the hearing. A telephone hearing was held on March 27, 2024. Claimant, Jennifer Wallace, participated and testified. Employer, Alpine Glass Inc, participated through Michael Pruter Jr. Employer's Exhibits 1 - 4 were offered and admitted into evidence. Notice was taken of the claimant's administrative record.

ISSUE:

Was the separation a layoff, discharge for misconduct or voluntary quit without good cause attributable to the employer?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having reviewed all of the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: The claimant began working for this employer on August 24, 2009 as a full-time customer service telemarketer. The claimant's regular schedule was 37.5 hours per week. Her immediate supervisor was Michael Pruter Jr. January 10, 2024 was the last day the claimant physically worked in that position. On January 10, 2024 the claimant emailed her supervisor that she had an interview scheduled that same day. Employer's Exhibit 1. The claimant ultimately accepted a job with the new employer and was scheduled to begin that job on January 19, 2024. The claimant submitted her resignation to Alpine Glass Inc in writing on January 15, 2024. Employer's Exhibit Exhibit 4. At some point after submitting her resignation to Alpine Glass Inc but before beginning her new employment, the claimant exacerbated or re-injured a back injury she had been dealing with for three years. Because of her back injury, she did not begin the new employment and remains unemployed. Continuing work was available with Alpine Glass Inc had the claimant not resigned.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant voluntarily left the employment to accept employment elsewhere but never began that employment.

Iowa Code § 96.5(1)a provides:

An individual shall be disqualified for benefits:

1. Voluntary quitting. If the individual has left work voluntarily without good cause attributable to the individual's employer, if so found by the department. But the individual shall not be disqualified if the department finds that:

a. The individual left employment in good faith for the sole purpose of accepting other or better employment, which the individual did accept, and the individual performed services in the new employment. Benefits relating to wage credits earned with the employer that the individual has left shall be charged to the unemployment compensation fund. This paragraph applies to both contributory and reimbursable employers, notwithstanding § 96.8, subsection 5.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.28(5) provides:

Voluntary quit requalification's and previously adjudicated voluntary quit issues.

(5) The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. The employment does not have to be covered employment and does not include self-employment.

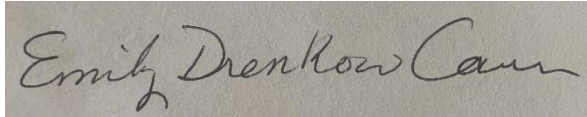

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-23.43(5) provides:

(5) Sole purpose. The claimant shall be eligible for benefits even though the claimant voluntarily quit if the claimant left for the sole purpose of accepting an offer of other or better employment, which the claimant did accept, and from which the claimant is separated, before or after having started the new employment. No charge shall accrue to the account of the former voluntarily quit employer.

Claimant left her position with the employer to accept another full time position. Claimant never actually worked for the new employer. The separation was without good cause attributable to the employer and the claimant is disqualified from receipt of unemployment benefits. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided, she is otherwise eligible.

DECISION:

The February 15, 2024, (reference 01) decision is affirmed. Claimant voluntarily quit employment on January 15, 2024 without good cause attributable to her employer. Benefits are withheld until such time as she has worked in and been paid wages for insured work equal to ten times her weekly benefit amount, provided she is otherwise eligible.
