APPEAL 24A-UI-07724-S2

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

OC: 08/11/24
Claimant: Appellant (6)

Iowa Code § 96.5(2)a – Discharge for Misconduct
Iowa Code § 96.5(1) – Voluntary Quitting
Iowa Code § 96.4(3) – Ability to and Availability for Work
Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) – Default Decision

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

James Greise, the claimant/appellant,¹ appealed the Iowa Workforce Development (IWD) August 28, 2024 (reference 01) unemployment insurance (UI) decision. The decision denied regular UI benefits because he voluntarily quit his job by failing to report to work and notify his employer for three days in ANDS. On September 3, 2024, the Iowa Department of Inspections, Appeals, and Licensing (DIAL), UI Appeals Bureau mailed a notice of hearing to the parties at each of their last known addresses of record for an in-person hearing at 300 W. Broadway, Suite 13, in Council Bluffs, Iowa scheduled for September 16, 2024.

A review of the area to which parties are to report indicates that the appellant/claimant did not show for the in-person hearing requested. The appellant failed to appear in person for the hearing and as such, no hearing was held.

ISSUE:

Should the appeal be dismissed because the appellant did not appear and participate in the appeal hearing?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

The DIAL UI Appeals Bureau properly notified the parties of the scheduled hearing for this appeal. The appellant failed to appear in person for the scheduled hearing, as required by the hearing notice. The appellant did not request a postponement of the hearing before the hearing date.

The hearing notice lists the hearing date as September 16, 2024, and the hearing time as 1:00 p.m. Iowa time. The hearing notice also advises the parties:

IMPORTANT NOTICE!

¹ Claimant is the person who filed the UI claim with IWD. Appellant is the person or employer who filed the appeal.

When you arrive at the hearing location, do not wait in line. You should immediately ask workforce center staff where to go for the hearing. On the scheduled date, you must be present at the location identified above and ready to participate in the hearing at the scheduled time. If you or one of your witnesses needs an interpreter, you should notify the Appeals Bureau immediately so that the Appeals Bureau can arrange for an interpreter for the hearing.

The undersigned left the record open after the hearing start time, to give the appellant a reasonable opportunity to participate. Allowing additional time may prejudice the non-appealing party. Holding the appellant in default for not appearing and participating during the grace period after the hearing start time is reasonable considering the time allocated for each appeal hearing.

The UI decision concluded that the appellant is not eligible for benefits because he voluntarily quit his employment by failing to report to work without notifying his employer for three days.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

The Iowa Administrative Procedures Act at Iowa Code § 17A.12(3) provides, in relevant part:

If a party fails to appear or participate in a contested case proceeding after proper service of notice, the presiding officer may, if no adjournment is granted, enter a default decision or proceed with the hearing and make a decision in the absence of the party. ... If a decision is rendered against a party who failed to appear for the hearing and the presiding officer is timely requested by that party to vacate the decision for good cause, the time for initiating a further appeal is stayed pending a determination by the presiding officer to grant or deny the request. If adequate reasons are provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall vacate the decision and, after proper service of notice, conduct another evidentiary hearing. If adequate reasons are not provided showing good cause for the party's failure to appear, the presiding officer shall deny the motion to vacate.

Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-26.14(6) provides:

(6) If one or more parties which received notice for a contested case hearing fail to appear at the time and place of an in-person hearing, the presiding officer may proceed with the hearing. If the appealing party fails to appear, the presiding officer may decide the party is in default and dismiss the appeal. The hearing may be reopened if the absent party makes a request in writing to reopen the hearing under subrule 26.8(3) and shows good cause for reopening the hearing.

a. If an absent party arrives for an in-person hearing while the hearing is in session, the presiding officer shall pause to admit the party, summarize the hearing to that point, administer the oath, and resume the hearing.

b. If an absent party arrives for an in-person hearing after the record has been closed and after any party which had participated in the hearing has departed, the presiding officer shall not take the evidence of the late party.

Due process requires notice and an opportunity to be heard, both of which were provided to the parties. The appellant is responsible for going forward with the case in a prompt and thoughtful manner. The appellant must be present at the start of the hearing to avoid a default judgment.² The hearing notice instructs the parties to arrive at the location listed on hearing notice at the time the hearing is scheduled to begin.

The appellant was not present at the start of the hearing or during the grace period prior to the record being closed. The representative's decision remains in force and effect. The appeal is dismissed and the IWD UI decision remains in force and effect.

DECISION:

The August 28, 2024 (reference 01) UI decision denying benefits remains in effect as the appellant is in default and this appeal is DISMISSED.
