UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE APPEALS BUREAU

JAMIE J KRUKOW
Claimant

APPEAL 18A-UI-01051-NM-T

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE
DECISION

IOWA WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

OC: 07/23/17
Claimant: Appellant (4)

Iowa Code § 96.6(1) – Filing Claims
Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g – Retroactive Benefits

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The claimant filed an appeal from the January 19, 2018, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision that denied the request for retroactive benefits. After due notice was issued, a telephone conference hearing was scheduled for February 16, 2018. Claimant participated.

ISSUE:

Should the claimant's request for retroactive benefits be granted for the two-week period ending December 30, 2017?

FINDINGS OF FACT:

Having heard the testimony and having reviewed the evidence in the record, the administrative law judge finds: Claimant filed an original claim effective July 23, 2017, with an additional claim on December 17, 2017. Claimant was temporarily laid-off from work from December 17 through 30, 2017. On December 19, 2017, claimant went online and went through steps that he believed would file his weekly continued claim for the week of December 17, 2017. In reality, claimant was following the process of reopening his claim for benefits. On December 24, 2017, claimant went online to file what he believed would be his weekly continued claim for the week of December 24, 2017, in reality this was the first day for claimant to file weekly claims for the week of December 17, 2017. Claimant believed his claim was processed successfully, but for some unknown reason it was not. Claimant did not read the paper or online version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook outlining the process for filing a continued weekly claim, nor did he read the letter sent to him by Iowa Workforce Development earlier in the year notifying him of filing changes. Claimant did not earn any wages or receive any vacation or holiday pay during the one week ending December 23, 2017.

REASONING AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW:

For the reasons that follow, the administrative law judge concludes the claimant's request for retroactive benefits is granted in part and denied in part.

Iowa Code section 96.6(1) provides:

1. Filing. Claims for benefits shall be made in accordance with such regulations as the department may prescribe.

In order to be eligible for weekly benefits, the claimant must file an online web application continued claim or show good cause for the failure to do so to support a request for retroactive benefits. Iowa Admin. Code r. 871-24.2(1)g.

What parties often misunderstand about the process is that during the week in which the unemployment occurs, the claimant should open an umbrella-like “original claim” (OC) by the close of business on Friday to establish the general claim for unemployment insurance benefits. In addition, for each week the claimant remains unemployed, they must file a “weekly continued claim” (WCC) to show they are available for work, report any wages, and otherwise establish eligibility for that past week of benefit payment. That must be done sometime between Sunday and Friday of the following week (see chart below). If a claimant does not file a WCC for one week for any reason and becomes unemployed again, the process must start over by reopening the OC no later than Friday, and filing weekly continued claim sometime between the following Sunday through Friday. No filing of any kind may be done on any Saturday.

On October 1, 2017, a letter about weekly claim filing change information was sent to all claimants, whether the claim was active or not:

Weekly Claim Filing Changes

Beginning with the week ending October 7, 2017, the first day of the week you can report a weekly claim is the Sunday starting at 8 a.m. after the prior week has ended. This means after October 7, 2017, you can no longer file weekly claims on Saturday of any week.

In addition, after October 7, 2017, weekly claims must be filed Sunday through Friday for the prior week only. This means you have six days to file the previous week’s claim. See the chart below for the days available to file your weekly claim. Delay in filing your weekly claim could result in denial of benefits.

You are encouraged to start following the new claims filing process now so that you are used to the new schedule when the changes happen in October. For your convenience, you can file your weekly claim online using a mobile device or computer at www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov.

The December 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 13 and 14:

Claim Effective Date

The effective date of all UI claims, regardless of filing method, will be the Sunday of the week in which the application was filed. The effective date of a claim will not be changed for applications that were not filed in a timely manner.

Reactivating a Claim

An individual can start and stop claiming weekly benefits as many times as necessary during the benefit year. This is called a break in reporting status. Any break in reporting requires the individual to file another initial claim application during the week he/she wants to start collecting benefits again. Any employment during the break must be reported.

The December 2017, version of the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook, provides in pertinent part at pages 19 and 20:

Filing Weekly Claims

How to File

After you file your initial claim, file weekly claims online at iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov for every week you are unemployed or your hours are reduced. You must file a weekly claim for any week that you want payment even if your eligibility is being decided or you have an appeal pending.

To request UI benefit payments during weeks of unemployment, individuals must certify they:

- Are currently unemployed or working reduced hours
- Are able to work and available for work
- Have not refused any job offers or referrals to a job
- Are actively looking for work (unless waived)
- Are reporting any pay or pension payment

First day to file week two	File for week two	File for week two	File for week two	File for week two	Last day to file for week two	Last day of week three (no filing)
First day to file week three	File for week three	File for week three	File for week three	File for week three	Last day to file for week three	Last day of week four (no filing)

When to File

The current week is the week that just ended on Saturday. Weekly claims must be filed 8 am Sunday through 5:30 pm Friday for the prior week only. This means individuals have six days to file the previous week's claim. See the chart above for the days available to file. Weekly claims can be filed online using a mobile device or computer at <https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>.

Delay in filing your weekly claim could result in denial of benefits.

IMPORTANT: You will receive confirmation that the claim has been processed successfully. If you don't receive confirmation, the process must be repeated until the claim has been successfully submitted.

Elsewhere in the December 2017, version of the handbook at page 8, contact information includes days and hours for filing a claim and weekly claim reporting:

File a Claim

Hours: Sunday through Friday, 8:00 am to 4:30 pm
www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov
<https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/UIInitialClaim/>

Weekly Claim Reporting

Hours: Sunday 8:00 am – 11:30 pm and Monday through Friday 8:00 am through 5:30 pm
<https://uiclaims.iwd.iowa.gov/weeklyclaims/>

On December 24, 2017 claimant went online to file his weekly continued claim, though he believed he was filing for the week of December 24, rather than the week of December 17, 2017. Claimant believed his claim had gone through successfully. Claimant's belief his claim was successful was reasonable and is considered a good reason for the delay in filing the weekly online web application continued claim for the week ending December 23, 2017.

Claimant did not make a claim for benefits for the week of December 24, 2017, because he did not understand the filing process or that his claim for this week could not be filed until December 31, 2017. This process is clearly outlined in the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook as outlined above. Claimant's failure to read and follow the instructions in the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook or the back of the unemployment insurance decision or the back of the appeal hearing notice about continuing to file claims during the appeal process is not considered a good reason for having failed to file weekly online web application continued claims. Retroactive benefits are denied for the one week ending December 30, 2017.

Claimant is urged to review information in the Unemployment Insurance Benefits Handbook at: https://www.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/sites/search.iowaworkforcedevelopment.gov/files/documents/ClaimantHandbook_2017-18.pdf

DECISION:

The January 19, 2018, (reference 07) unemployment insurance decision is modified in favor of appellant. The claimant's request for retroactive benefits is granted for the one week ending December 23, 2017, and denied for the one week ending December 30, 2017. Claimant did not earn any wages or receive any vacation or holiday pay during the one week ending December 23, 2017.
